NEC Members Invited to FWD.us Discussion of the Implications of the 2014 Elections for Immigration Reform

The local chapter of FWD.us, a national tech industry coalition supporting comprehensive immigration reform, invites NEC members to attend an upcoming event focused on the implications of the 2014 elections on immigration reform.

“The Road FWD: Implications of the 2014 Midterm Elections” will feature remarks from Stas Gayshan, who recently joined the Cambridge Innovation Center (CIC) team as Founder of CIC Boston and Managing Director. Previously, Stas was the Founder & CEO of Space with a Soul, a 20,000 square foot coworking space in Boston's Innovation District. Stas is an entrepreneur and an attorney and worked in Democratic political campaigns at various levels prior to starting Space with a Soul.

The event will take place on November 18, 2014, from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. at NGIN Workplace in Cambridge.
